

EMC Chapters Recognized at the 2008 IEEE EMC Annual Awards Luncheon

Bob Scully (left) accepts the "Chapter Founder" award on behalf of the new Galveston Bay/Houston, Texas Chapter from EMC Society President Elya Joffe.

Jamal Shafii (left) accepts the "Chapter Founder" award on behalf of the new Rock River Valley, Illinois Chapter from Mr. Joffe.

Peter Leung (left) accepts the "Most Improved Chapter" award on behalf of the Hong Kong Chapter from Mr. Joffe.

Congratulations to the Following EMC Chapters for Awards they Received in Absentia at the Awards Luncheon

Madhumita Chakravarti was honoured for his efforts in founding the IEEE EMC Chapter in Hyderabad, India.

Vesna Roje was honoured for her efforts that resulted in the Croatia Chapter receiving the "Chapter of the Year" award.

Andres Pavas was honoured for his efforts in founding the IEEE EMC Chapter in Colombia, South America.

2008 Chapter Chair Luncheon

Chapter Chairs and representatives from many of the EMC Chapters worldwide convened in Detroit for the annual Chapter Chair Luncheon organized by the EMC Society Member Services team of Dave Staggs, Vice-President for Member Services, and Francesca Maradei, Chapters Coordinator.

PHOTOS BY KEN WYATT

Those attending the 2008 luncheon included (front row from left) Iroshi Hinoue (Sendai), Hideaki Sone (Sendai), Ken Renda (Santa Clara Valley), Jim Blaha (Milwaukee), Francesca Maradei (Italy), Ryuji Koga (Japan), Mohd Zara Mohd Jenu (Malaysia), and Harry Gaul (Phoenix). Back row, from left, are Boris Shusterman (Central New England), Mike Oliver (Pittsburgh), Johan Catrysse (Benelux), Peter Leung (Hong Kong), Frank Leferink (Benelux), Brian Jones (United Kingdom and Republic of Ireland), Mark Frankfurth (San Diego), Kye Yak See (Singapore), Sven Battermann (Germany), Janet O'Neil (Seattle), Jack Black (Chicago) and Derick Skouby (Oregon and SW Washington).