

Just one more....

Given that Austin, Texas is the “Live Music Capital of the World”, EMC Society member and musician Jeff Silberberg felt right at home! Turns out Jeff has quite a collection of musical instruments, some of which he brought to Austin and played in the exhibit hall at the EMC 2009 Symposium! He is shown in the top photo below with just a few of his many instruments (he’s added more since this photo was taken). Can you find the 11 changes in the photo at the bottom below? If you’re stumped, the answers will be provided in the Winter 2010 EMC Newsletter.
